

Swissdis AG – Your partner for axial-lead resistors

Our comprehensive range of resistors is rounded off by our axial-lead resistors. We have the frequently used 0.6W types through to the E12 Series 10R – 1M all in stock.

MF Series / 0.6W / 50ppm / 300V / 1%

Metal Film Resistor 2.5 x 6.8mm

We furthermore have packs containing 1'000 of these resistors on offer, which are very popular on the Swiss market.

You can contact us at anytime should you require any further information.

You will find the corresponding data sheet on the Swissdis website swissdis.ch «Resistors».
